

PCs, Servers, and Notebooks

TSAChoice offers a full range of custom built workstations and servers designed to meet your needs. We also offer a variety of business class laptops to meet your mobile requirements. Including laptops by Lenovo . We will design a workstation or server based on your needs and requirements for your business. We only use top of the line components including Intel Dual Core and Xeon Processors, Adaptec RAID

TSAChoice understands that the most reliable servers are designed from the ground up. We will first assess what your needs are and then our certified staff will recommend a hardware and software solution to fit your needs. We can offer a variety of servers including entry level servers that will meets the overall needs of small businesses to robust enterprise class servers that can handle resource intensive applications such as Exchange Email, SQL databases, terminal services for remote users or for application deployment. In addition to finding you a hardware solution our certified staff will also help you find the best software packages from operating systems to productivity suites to meet your business needs. You can also rest assured that the software your purchase from us is genuine and we will make sure that your business is with in legal licensing compliance. controllers, and Western Digital hard drives. We will not sacrifice quality by offering inferior parts or components in order to cut costs as do many of the larger manufacturers.